Calling out Deception – Calling out Truth

Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am YHWH your God. (Lev. 20:7)

This is not merely a call to avoid what is common. It is an invitation to walk the Ancient Sacred Path — one that winds through surrender, purity, and reverence, until it leads to the heart of the One who called us.

The Concept of Holiness

Being Set-Apart in a World That Blurs the Lines

Introduction – What Is Holiness?

In Hebrew, the word for holiness is קָדוֹשׁ (qadosh), meaning set apart, sacred, or consecrated. Holiness is not a mystical aura nor a religious emotion — it is a status of distinction, a way of life marked by obedience to YHWH's instructions.

YHWH is holy — utterly unique, completely pure, and morally perfect. And He has called His people to reflect His nature by being holy as He is holy.

*Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them, You shall be holy, for I YHWH your Elohim am holy.
(Leviticus 19:2)*

Obedience to YHWH's Commandments

Holiness begins with obedience. To be holy is to live in alignment with the Covenant — walking according to the Torah, which includes moral, ceremonial, and lifestyle instructions.

Now therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, you shall be My treasured possession among all peoples... and you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. (Exodus 19:5–6)

---

You shall be holy to Me, for I YHWH am holy and have separated you from the peoples, that you should be Mine. (Leviticus 20:26)

---

Ritual Purity and Reverence

YHWH established rituals and offerings not as empty acts, but as means to approach Him with honor and to remain ritually clean in His presence.

*For on this day shall atonement be made for you to cleanse you.
You shall be clean before YHWH from all your sins.
(Leviticus 16:30)*

For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your souls, for it is the blood that makes atonement by the life. (Leviticus 17:11)

Separation from Sin and Pagan Practices

Holiness demands separation — not isolation from the world, but a distinctness from the sins and customs of the nations.

Depart, depart, go out from there; touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of her; purify yourselves, you who bear the vessels of YHWH. (Isaiah 52:11)

---

You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt... and you shall not walk in their statutes. (Leviticus 18:3)

The Presence of YHWH Is Holy

Wherever YHWH dwells, the ground is holy. His nearness requires reverence. The Tabernacle and Temple were not holy because of the structure — they were holy because He was there.

And let them make Me a Sanctuary, that I may dwell in their midst. (Exodus 25:8)

---

And when the priests came out of the Holy Place, a cloud filled the House of YHWH, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of YHWH filled the House. (I Kings 8:10–11)

What Holiness Is Not

YHWH does not delight in rituals divorced from righteousness. He has warned against adding to His commands or replacing His ways with human systems.

Everything that I command you, you shall be careful to do. You shall not add to it or take from it. (Deut. 12:32)

---

Do not add to the word that I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of YHWH your Elohim that I command you. (Deut. 4:2)

---

Every word of God proves true... Do not add to His words, lest He rebuke you and you be found a liar. (Pro. 30:5–6)

---

Because this people draw near with their mouth and honor Me with their lips, while their hearts are far from Me, and their fear of Me is a commandment taught by men. (Is. 29:13)

Walking in Holiness Today

Holiness is not a costume. It is not external rules made by men. It is Torah lived out — modesty, purity, justice, mercy, clean distinctions, reverence, and worship.

YHWH is still holy. His Standards have not changed. And He is still calling out for a remnant to walk in His ways — to return to the Covenant, to reflect His light in the darkness, and to be a set-apart people in a profane world.

But this command I gave them: Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people. And walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you. (Jer. 7:23)

Questions to Ponder

Have I set myself apart from the world—or have I merely changed my behavior without changing my allegiance?

► Holiness is not about blending in with religious culture. It's about walking in Covenant distinction with YHWH.

Am I obeying the actual Commandments of YHWH—or man-made traditions taught as truth?

► Deuteronomy 4:2 warns against adding or subtracting. Am I walking in His Word... or someone else's version of it?

Do I approach the presence of YHWH with reverence—or with routine and familiarity?

► Holiness demands awe. Have I treated sacred things casually?

Do I know what YHWH considers clean and unclean—or have I let culture or the church to decide for me?

➤ Holiness involves clear boundaries. Am I honoring them?

Is my outward modesty matched by inward purity and humility?

➤ Holiness is not just seen in clothing or behavior—but in motive, intention, and heart posture.

If someone watched my life, would they recognize a person who is set apart for YHWH?

➤ Does my life reflect His light, His ways, and His name?

*Holiness is not about perfection — it's about devotion.
